

YHDESSÄ ILMAN RASISMIA

Lesson 2: Appendices

GROUPS AND ROLES

I make others laugh easily.

I'm helpful.

I'm often the one that challenges people to see things from a different perspective.

I can speak two or more languages.

I like sports.

I easily come up with all kinds of ideas.

I love reading.

I'm good at writing or inventing stories.

I have sometimes said things that I regret.

I have sometimes been accused of something I didn't do.

I am good at caring for animals.

I know lots about something, such as bugs or dinosaurs or games, or something else.

I am good at all kinds, or at some kinds, of games.

I am good at drawing, painting, crafting, acting, playing a musical instrument, or making videos.

I feel like I am Finnish.

I feel like I am both Finnish and something else.

I feel like I am something other than Finnish.

I have sometimes felt excluded from a group or activity.

I have sometimes intervened if someone was being bullied or excluded.

I chose not to step forward when a statement described me.

FRIENDSHIP GAME

SAMPO	BEN	TATJANA	ANNA
Fashion-conscious	Dresses in sportswear	Does not wear designer clothes	Dresses in dark clothes
Adopted from Thailand as a young child	From the countryside	Has lived in 7 different countries and does not speak much Finnish	Swedish-speaking Finn
Very funny, always joking	Serious and thoughtful	Easily excited, but easily angered	Shy
Plays computer games for five hours a day	Strong opinions	Religious	Surprises their friends with dangerous behaviour
Uses a wheelchair	Opposes immigration	Asylum seeker	Has a crush on a girl

OPPORTUNITIES TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

It is easy in our class to highlight different opinions and perspectives.
Adults always intervene in name-calling and bullying at our school.

It's easy for me to give space for other people's thoughts and to listen to their views, even if I think differently.

I am able to influence my own behaviour and how I treat others.

I am able to change my own beliefs or opinions.

I am able to influence the atmosphere in our class so that everyone can be themselves.

I am able to influence discussion on social media.

I am able to influence history.

I am able to influence my family's and relatives' values and ways of thinking.

I am able to influence anti-racism in Finland.